
"Scientific Research is a Creative Process»

On November 14, 2018 a round table "Scientific Research is a Creative Process" organized by the Scientific society of students, postgraduates, doctoral students and young scientists of Pedagogical Institute was held.

A welcoming word to participants of the roundtable was delivered by Svitlana Palamar, Vice-director on Scientific Work of Pedagogical Institute and Yana Matiushynets, Head of the Scientific Society of students, postgraduates, doctoral students and young scientists of the Pedagogical Institute.

Peculiarities of writing students' scientific works (projects) and methodology of scientific research implementation at Bachelor's and Master's degree on topical issues in Pedagogy and Psychology were presented at the meeting.

A friendly atmosphere contributed to a relaxed lively discussion and interest of participants in stated issues.

We are confident that further scientific activities of the Scientific Society will be intensified and will contribute to the development of scientific research of future specialists in Preschool and Primary Education.
